

WHO WAS THE THIEF IN THE MOVIE THEATER CLOAKROOM?

Mystery #82

1. I went to movies to see the latest Czech picture.

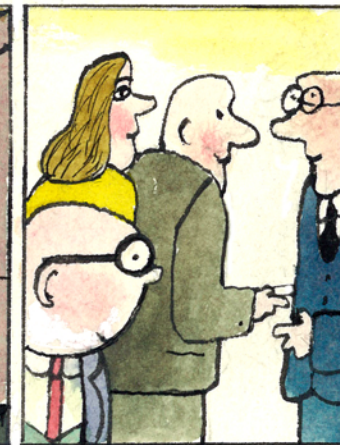

2. While I was checking my coat in, I had witnessed a peculiar incident.

3. Among the coats I sighted a groping hand that was searching in the pockets of the coats. It was obvious ...

4. ... a thief was hiding among the coats, however, before I was able to get there ...

5. ... he had sneaked out, and was hiding in the audience.

6. As it turned out, it was rather easy to identify who it was. It became obvious when the audience started to walk out of the theater.

Answer: Inspector Pike noticed that the hand that he sighted in the cloakroom, wore a red wristband. It was the same wristband that was on one of the visitors who was leaving the theater.
